

Arizona Artist On The Rise

Michael Diamond Register (Born July 18, 1987). Better known by his stage name, Mike Millie da Don, is an American Hip Hop/RB artist from Macon/Atlanta, Georgia. He started making music at the age of 15, playing guitar with his Dad. He was raised up singing Country/R and B, but turn to Rap and Hip Hop because of his poetic ability and love for this style of music. Some of his biggest musical inspiration comes from Dr. Dre and Tupac.

Mike Millie started sharing his ability with other artists and quickly created a buzz in his city. His former stage name was Dub Deezy, but in late 2004, he changed the name because it no longer suited him. He had elevated himself to be a force to be reckoned with. He became an intern for East End Records of Atlanta, GA and learned as much as he could about the music industry. Unfortunately, they closed in 2008 and he then made a decision to start his own company. In 2012, it was the birth of the uprising empire called Young Scrilla Enterprises. He developed a record label division called Young Scrilla Music (YSM).

Mike Millie has worked on many projects over the years and done a lot of features and performances with other artists locally. Now is the time for him to put his music on the Shelf. His first debut mixtape album "Novicane" is due to release on November 28.
