

Viti Ruiz was born in Paterson New Jersey, on May 5 1966, of parents from Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. Raised in Mayaguez for thirteen years, he vocalized with Local orchestrate called "Creating Boricua". At sixteen, he recorded his first song titled "The Student" in a production of Johnny Ortiz, with the participation of "Pan Orquest" of Coamito. This production was called "The Machine of the 80's" and had a choice of singers like Tito Gomez, Pedro Arroyo and Junior Gonzalez, among others. Viti, has the Best salsa band in NYC.

In 1986, Viti joined his brother's salsa band, Frankie Ruiz, as a singer and in 1989 recorded his first solo record, which is titled "SeduceMe, This time under the production of Combo Records causing great international sensation with his hits "Between Family", "An Prohibited Caress", (better known as "Shiver"), "I'm dying to be with You", "She's Only Mine", and other . In 1990, he recorded his second album titled "Viti At Work", under the label "Capitol Records" which expanded to territories like Mexico, Tenerife, Colombia, Dominican Republic and other countries. His most notable successes were "Fire" and "I want to wake up With Somebody".

In 1993, Viti returns again to his label "Combo Records" with a production called "You Have me Suffering" and "Only You", among others. To reappear again with his fourth musical "Pretty Face". Viti has caused great impact on their acting in acetate. This production, directed by his late brother the legendary salsa All Star "Frankie Ruiz" (as if almost passing symbolically the Ruiz baton Legacy, granting the right of passage to his Brother). Also, with the participation of Frankie own vision Interpretations of "Pretty Face".

In 1989, Viti won "Diplo" in Puerto Rico as promising orchestra, while the 1990 was awarded the "Ovation" as a revelation of the year in Chicago. Also, it was Award nominated "Lo Nuestro" in 1989. Viti Ruiz proudly collects countless plates and recognition received from its extensive Scrolls Salsa fans worldwide. In 2012, he received an award for "25 year career" by the Dominican community resident of New York. Also started her first world tour.

Viti's back again in 2012 with his new Salsa single "I SUFFERED" among others. Production Executive Jose "Coqui" Gonzales, and Musical Director Marlow Rosado. Viti Ruiz salsa in NYC. www.vitirui.com

Viti's back again in 2013, with his Management Company, VRM (Viti Ruiz Management), and his new musical production, VITI RUIZ EN "EL RETORNO" MEJOR QUE NUNCA. To be released end of April mid-June. For more info visit vitirui.com