

Lady "A"

Lady "A" has been a Pacific NW Blues favorite for many years and is known as "The Hardest Workin Woman in Blues, Soul & Funk". Her love of blues and soul music is generally likened to a pot of Louisiana Gumbo... throw in a mixture of soul, funk, the musicians and a venue, it makes for the best hand clappin', foot-stoppin' and dancin' experience you can throw all together. This husky-sultry voice vixen mesmerizes audiences from Seattle to Portland; Memphis to Mississippi, has toured Europe, and like a good gumbo, Lady "A" is best served HOT!

Lady "A's" 1st solo CD – "BlueZ in the Key of Me" was nominated for the Blues Music Award on its debut in 2010. Her 2nd CD project "How Did I Get Here?" was nominated for the Best Self-Produced CD by the Washington Blues Society. Lady "A" was nominated by the Washington Blues Society in the 2013 Best Performer category, headlined the 2014 West Port Blues Festival in West Port, Washington. She has performed and dazzled her audiences during her 1st European 21 day tour of The Netherlands. She is a long-standing featured artist with two Pacific NW female groups; The West Coast Women in Blues Revue and The Ilwaco Blues Festival "Lady Heartbreakers", and works with one of her favorite charitable organizations United by Music Europe, which she is a mentor and assist intellectually disabled individuals perform on stage and in 2015 began hosting her own online radio show with NWCZ – Lady "A's" Gumbo & Gospel show. When you open a pot with this mixture of talent, smiles and drive... the stage just sizzles and Lady "A" knows how stir it UP!

Lady A has opened for such artist as Denise LaSalle, the late Little Milton, Shemekia Copeland, Dr. John; has toured with Bobby Rush, Eden Brent, Dexter Allen, Super Chikan, Waylon Thibodeaux, Charles and Charmaine Neville and been on stage with such artist as the late, Michael Burks, Kenny Neal, Gospel favorites, The Lee Boys, Peter Dammann, Janiva Magness, and Howlin Mad "Bill" Perry.

Lady "A" also performs as a solo act which includes Blues-Gospel and has performed on the Delta Music Experience (DME) tour for the better part of (7) years, been a part of the Waterfront Blues Festival on the DME Sail on Sista Cruise for the last 5 years and has served as M.C. host of the Nightly All-Star jam at the Winthrop Rhythm & Blues Festival since 2010. A woman always in high demand, to add that bit of spice to a festival, event or show.

The Lady's high energy show has been compared to the likes of "Tina Turner"; she easily draws the audience in with her sultry-husky voice and contemporary blues styling, and believes highly in audience participation.
