

G.I. JAYNE AKA JIGGY JADA— BIOGRAPHY

BIOGRAPHY

From the moment she won the Hot 97 radio ready 2012 show case—Jiggy Jada's star has been shining brightly. Leader, innovator, and gifted defines 23 year old female artist G.I. Jayne aka Jiggy Jada. She hails from East New York but represents Staten Island where she was raised. Humble and graceful yet her confidence is undeniable. Along with her ability to perform and deliver, she is both humbling and diverse. G.I. Jayne dominates the stage with her powerful voice and strong presence. Openly lesbian, she cares not of who opposes, slaying nay-Sayers with her verbal intellect and intricate views. She proves talent over rules hate any day.

G.I. Jayne's musical gifts have enabled her to write her own music, making waves and stirring up conversations about this talented artist, and her ability to transcend more than a memorable beat, but the ability to convey real life through her hard hitting, truthful, and at times even tender lyrics.

With her mother, Jacquelyn, in her corner managing her, the dynamic duo is breaking all rules necessary to achieve their goal: introducing a fresh and innovative voice to the Hip Hop genre. She is representing MMOB Entertainment (Mynding My Own Bizness) well. G.I. Jayne's long anticipated project—G.I. Jayne Salute Purple Heart mix-tape, hosted by Big Dawg Pitbulls Dj Magic—finally made its debut. Which can be found on her website: www.jiggyjada.com

G.I. Jayne's motive is simply to encourage the youth to believe in themselves while opening up this generations eyes to the darkness they're sometimes trapped in. Moving with militancy and diligence she is prepared for war and fights for the cause. A visual perspective of her talent can be seen in her latest video "Know Just Us, Know Peace".

In hot demand for her creativity and electrifying performances, G.I. Jayne has been making her way throughout the states performing at various venues, and being interviewed by radio personalities wanting to know more about whom she is and getting a taste of what she is bringing to the Hip Hop genre, as well as the film and philanthropic arenas.

MMOB 's first lady, G.I. Jayne is more than a performer. She is an artist, dedicated to her craft and social consciousness. Drawing from her own struggles, she created Stop Bullying. A powerful song that speaks to the harsh realities of bullying that has been causing grief and pain to many victims. From this one powerful song, The Stop Bullying Project was born. G.I. Jayne, along with her management partnered with Executive Producer Maurice Wilson of Black Moes Art Music Inc./NXT LVL Entertainment, Director/Producer Gerald Barclay of Gee Bee Productions, and produced the short film, The Bully. IlluminArt Productions, a non-profit organization that enables people of all ages to find solutions to complex challenges through theater and performance, was brought on as a consultant.

The Stop Bullying Project has produced a short film, a video and a song; all geared toward bringing an end to bullying. The short , yet powerful film has been receiving rave reviews. It premiered at the 2013 Pan African Film & Arts Festival where it was an official selection, and garnered additional showings for its rave reviews and social impact. In September, The Bully was an official selection of the Harlem International Film Festival.

The film has allowed G.I. Jayne to spread her wings as an artist. To reach beyond the scopes of music, but into all arenas of entertainment, as well as education. G.I. Jayne has seen an eventful year, speaking and performing at schools, conferences, concerts, rallies, and different venues across the state.

G.I. Jayne aka Jiggy Jada is continuing to make a name for herself not only in the entertainment world, but in the hearts and minds of the socially conscious that want to make a difference. Along with her management, M.M.O.B, G.I. Jayne is here for the long run... making music and creating social change.

"Nas is my favorite rapper, and the 90s era is the story of my life. I live for music and die for truth rather they accept it or not." G.I. Jayne
