

Megan Elizabeth is a singer, musician, and songwriter from Pasadena, Maryland. A multi-faceted instrumentalist and composer of the piano, & guitar. Megan's sound described as "Katy Perry meets Adele." Her new single, Closer To You, is set to release in Spring 2014.

She is currently in the studio recording her debut pop album with legendary Executive Producer and songwriter, Nathan "Impact" Jolley from Ready, Set Impact, who has produced & shared the stage with a variety of artist from John Legend, Mya, Wynton Marsalis, & many more, Megan's team is also comprised of Media Exec, Radio/TV personality, Jeannie Jones, also known to her fans as the "Kitty of the City" who is deemed "Oprah in Training" by the Washington Post. With performances spanning across the country from Washington, D.C., Miami, to Los Angeles, Megan's career is taking off and is set to reach new heights quickly.

Megan's name is buzzing among music industry leaders and professionals as she's gaining fans every day after her most recent performance in LA and partnering up with Starbucks in the Washington, DC area to showcase her talent in conjunction with supporting a multitude of charitable causes. She has also been featured in the Berklee College of Music's prestigious Sidewalk Songwriting Showcase two years in a row. Her new hit single is set to release Spring 2014.

To check out Megan's most recent performances subscribe to her YouTube Channel, Megan ElizabethTV and follow her on Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/OfficialMeganElizabeth>

Twitter @MeganEMusic_