TJ says, “.....The songs I sing are a reflection of who I am..... a few of my songs challenge the boundaries of what some folks think gospel should sound like,no matter whether the music that God gives me to sing is for me to praise and worship him, encourage his people, or tell the world what thus saith the Lord, I sing it freely and in obedience for his pleasure.” TJ fully accredits the production of this cd to GOD. “Without Him and His Omniscient wisdom and favor, this project would have NEVER been completed... You know, it's wild how the Lord strategically orchestrated HHMC. All I can say is that it was all Him: the vision, the lyrics, the melodies, he even recruited & built the team of believers it took to complete this project."
