

A musician, songwriter, producer, broadcaster and iconic voice-over actor for over four decades, Al Chalk has performed and or recorded with a host of Pop, Jazz and R&B legends. Artist such as Barry White, Herbie Hancock and Stevie Wonder just to name a few.

Al, a veteran percussionist who hails originally from New York City, has been composing and producing world music for more than 20 years. He is now thrilled to launch his debut album of world music entitled "United States of Us".

The album with its tight rhythms, snappy horn arrangements and crisp vocals, masterfully fuses elements of Pop, Jazz, African and Latin. The result is a rich, bold and superbly unique sound. "United States of Us" features the pumped up dancehall single "Webeupinda'club" featuring hot rap newcomer, E-Man.U.L. The album also includes the slick and sexy slow jam, "All I Want" featuring vocal sensation, Julio Hanson. The song was co-produced by renowned L.A. producer Lloyd Tolbert and recorded at both Lloyd's Tolhouse Sound and Al's ChalkTalk Music Studios.

Al promises his exciting new album will take you on an incredible musical journey you won't soon forget. The highly anticipated "United States of Us" in downloadable formats is now available for purchase exclusively from online stores such as CD Baby, iTunes, GooglePlay, etc. For more info you may personally contact Al by phone at 818.552.2705 or by email at chalktalkmusic@hotmail.com. And of course you can follow Al on FaceBook, Twitter and IMDB. Enjoy! But please! Remember to Groove Responsibly!
