

The atmosphere and purpose Kopo creates with his music is to bring light and love into your world. His is a message of creating inner peace, healing the mind, body and spirit through music, singing and dancing. A celebration of life, "Calling on that light within".

Kopo Magic was Drum Major for Payson High School in Payson Utah for two years as well as student band director.

He has been a music director for many different churches and spiritual groups, such as The Center for Spiritual Living in Salt Lake City.

He has performed over 1000 performances for the Utah community. For Yoga Teacher Training, Deeksha Meditations, Yoga Classes, Kirtan Concerts, and Color Festivals at the Krishna Temple in Spanish Fork and Salt Lake City He has also performed at hospitals, restaurants, festivals, house concerts and weddings.

The chanting and mantra style comes from a Bhakti Yoga Devotion also called kirtan. Singing in Sanskrit is the highest vibrational language even without knowing the meanings, this music has a huge healing benefit, healing from the inside out.

Kopo has become a sound healer. He uses his music to heal the mind, body and Spirit from the inside out. To create a space where one can overcome emotional blocks and find an inner peace.

Kopo plays the harp, ukulele, Irish and Indian flutes, hand drums, piano and gong.