

East Coast Rapper the Rain

Synopsis: Born and raised in Queens NY July 8th 1981 Rapper the Rain the son of a Musician influence by LL Cool J, Run DMC, BIG, Tupac, Nas, Rakiem, Puff Daddy and Jay-Z

Early Years Born Antonio Washington in Queen NY on July8th 1981 son of a Jazz Musician Isaac Washington he was raised in South Jamaica Housing Project. He wrote his rhymes about his life staying on the positive note coming up in the projects. Inspire his interest in writing he finished HS but didn't go to college ended up on the mean streets of South Side.

Where people knew something different about him. Even though there was so much negative around him. He ventured off into the acting field in Commercials and Movies. Performed on stage at the Grammys with Will Smith "Men In Black" In 2011 He produced a TV show "Kicking it With Rosie" In 2012 he produced his own show "On The Grind TV show with special guest Ice T & Coco, Shelia, Buggy and Dr. Bob lee from WBLS-Radio, Rev Al Sharpton, Hurricane, Female Comedian S'more just to name few. In 2013 put out a single "It's About To Go Down" It was acclaim as one of the Hoods favorite. He performed shows around and out of NYC. He always knew he had something special with lots of talent. 2016 He decided to come back into MJM Recording studio with super producer Teardrop. Now he's previously working on his new LP (Rain) with a Single to be released in 2017