At an early age his desire for the fast life begin to grow, quickly esclading into a life filled with drugs, sex, and alcohol. Slim Vezy had a daughter and shortly after married his high school sweetheart .

With a taste for making music Slim still had a way to let his passion play it's role. Slim's brother, and some close friend came up with a rap group, named "Kingz Of The MidSouth" resulting in the hood giving notice. Slim and K.M.S. took on opportunity joining forces with an artist under 8-ball / 8ways record label, branding a new group V-Squad. Touring Memphis, Mississippi, Atlanta, Alabama, Virginia, there was growth in popularity, but shrinkage in K. M. S. musical mission. After about 3 years, and one member staying with V-Squad a name change occurred Explicit Minds Concept Music Group (E. M. C. M. G.) . In the mist of all that his wife gave birth their second child, his baby boy. Once again presented with a new way of thinking for greater commitments.

To the sum of 12 year where spent in his gift before being delivered. Deliverance started to happen in the last year with the group. Recognizing how the lifestyle and decisions made were eating away at his love . Slim branched off from the group while growing a deeper relationship with God. A year went by in transition, almost giving up on rap. Still thinking of what people may say about the purposes for him. One day his wife presented Lecrea to him. That gave him encouragement "like yeah I'm just like him, I can really rap and obey God too". Slim had realize the greatness of in his testimony. Now he raps the gospel of Jesus in an unashamed demeanor.
