

The Kai Eckhardt Band
www.kaizone.com

The Kai Eckhardt band features world beats and progressive jazz jams. Using brilliant musicianship to bring the healing spirit of music, in addition to clinics & education as a platform to benefit community services, partnerships & promote green alternatives delivering a message relevant to the times we live in.

KAI ECKHARDT BIO:

Kai Eckhardt is a Liberian / German bassist known through his work with guitarist John McLaughlin in the late 80's, Billy Cobham in the 90's and Garaj Mahal in the new millennium. Other career highlights include performances and recordings with: Trilok Gurtu, Stanley Clarke, Wayne Shorter, Patrice Rushen, Dewey Redman, Donald Byrd, Bela Fleck, Victor Wooten, Robert Walter, Karl Denson, Michael Franti, Larry Coryell, Warren Hill, Al Di Meola, Zakir Hussain, Vital Information, John Scofield and Bill Frisell.

His active career spans 3 decades. Kai is currently a professor at the Jazz School Institute in Berkeley, CA who frequently teaches clinics and workshops world wide. Teaching engagements include the Berklee School of Music in Boston, the Bass Collective in New York City, BIT in Hollywood, the Anton Bruckner Conservatory in Austria, the Indian Institute of Technology in Chennai, the Amsterdam Conservatory in the Netherlands and Victor Wooten's Bass and Nature camp.

Kai Eckhardt Band booking inquiries: kaieckhardtband@gmail.com