New Empire is one of the most popular and influential rock/pop acts in Australia. Gaining massive momentum through constant touring, the band's recent national tour saw them perform over 45 shows to more than 80,000 people around the country. New Empire is currently huge favourites on Twitter, towards the end of 2009 they were ranked 6th most talked about topic around the world, as well as featuring heavily on YouTube with New Empire TV and MySpace.

The band, (L to R in photo) Pete, Jeremy, Sam and Kale are from Cronulla Beach NSW, have been playing music together since they were kids. They have captivated audiences around the world with their powerful live show, catchy melodies and their heart-felt and uplifting lyrics. Time after time young people everywhere are being impacted by the message and heart behind New Empire...a message that offers hope, true value and self-worth...an integrity and heart that is so rare in today's pop culture.
